

Accessibility for Persons with Disabilities Policy

Royal LePage Real Estate Services Ltd. (the Company) strives to provide exceptional customer service to everyone in a dignified and respectful manner, and that meets all legislative requirements. The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA) was passed in 2005. Its goal is to make Ontario accessible for people with disabilities by 2025. The Accessibility Standard for Customer Service applies to all businesses and organizations in Ontario with one or more employees.

The following is our policy for providing exceptional service to everyone, and applies to all Canadian the Company employees and business lines.

1. Our Mission

The Company is committed to provider of quality real estate services to, and through, our leading franchise and corporate brokerage brands throughout Canada. As a provider of these services, we are committed to providing accessible customer service to people with disabilities.

2. Our Commitment

In fulfilling our mission, the Company is committed to providing its goods and services in a way that respects the dignity and independence of people with disabilities. We are also committed to providing people with disabilities the same opportunity to access our goods and services and allowing them to benefit from the same services, in the same place and in a similar way as other customers.

3. Providing Goods and Services to People with Disabilities

The Company is committed to excellence in serving all customers including people with disabilities and we will carry out our functions and responsibilities in the following areas:

1. Communication

The Company is committed to communicating with people with disabilities in ways that take into account their disability. We train staff to communicate with customers on how to interact and communicate with people with various types of disabilities.

2. Telephone Services

The Company is committed to providing fully accessible telephone services to our customers. We train staff to communicate with customers over the telephone in clear and plain language and to speak clearly and slowly. We will offer to communicate with customers by other means if telephone communication is not suitable to their communication needs or is not available.

3. Assistive Devices

The Company is committed to serving people with disabilities and who use assistive devices to obtain, use or benefit from our goods and services. We ensure that our staff is trained and familiar with various assistive devices that may be used by customers with disabilities while accessing our goods or services.

We will also ensure that staff receives training on how to use assistive devices, if available on our premises.

4. Billing

We are committed to providing accessible invoices to all of our customers. For this reason, invoices will be provided in alternative formats upon request.

4. Use of Service Animals and Support Persons

Service Animals

We are committed to welcoming people with disabilities who are accompanied by a service animal on the parts of our premises that are open to the public and other third parties. We will also ensure that all staff, volunteers, and others dealing with the public are properly trained in how to interact with people with disabilities who are accompanied by a service animal.

Support Persons

We are committed to welcoming people with disabilities who are accompanied by a support person. Any person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person will be allowed to enter the Company premises with his or her person. Consent from the person with a disability is required when communicating private issues related to the person with a disability, in the presence of a support person.

5. Notice of Temporary Disruption

The Company will provide customers with notice in the event of a planned or unexpected disruption in the facilities or services usually used by people with disabilities. This notice will include information about the reason for the disruption, the anticipated duration, and a description of alternative facilities or services, if available.

The notice will be posted in a conspicuous place on premises owned or operated by the provider of the goods or services. In the event of an unexpected disruption, notice will be provided as soon as possible.

6. Training for Staff

The Company will ensure that training to all employees, volunteers, and others who deal with the public as well as all those who are involved in the development and approvals of customer service policies, practices and procedures. In addition, training will be provided to the Company employees as part of orientation training for new employees, and on an ongoing basis as required.

Training will include the following:

- The purpose of the AODA 2005 and the requirements of the Customer Service Standard
- Information on the Company's policies, practices and procedures relating to the customer service standard
- How to interact and communicate with people with various types of disabilities
- How to interact with people with disabilities who use an assistive device or require the assistance of a service animal or a support person
- What to do if a person with a disability is having difficulty in accessing the Company's goods or services
- How to use the equipment or devices, if available, on the Company's premises that may help with the provision of goods or services to people with disabilities.
